Beginning German returns in the Fall to VUJC!

If you're planning ahead for the trip to Pfaffenweiler in 2020, if you've never had the opportunity to build that foundation for your German, or if you'd just like a refresher for the German you already know, please join Dr. Ross Halvorsen and the first German class in a long time at Vincennes University, Jasper Campus.

It's only one evening a week, there won't be much homework, and you'll just have to find the time to keep up with learning new German words between classes. Pass/Fail is not an option at VUJC, but anybody is allowed to audit the course. If you're auditing, Ross will call on you only as much as you'd like. If you take it for credit, that's a different story.

Intermediate German will be offered the following spring semester. If you are not currently a VUJC student, you will need to apply as a guest student (for application and enrollment information, please call 812-482-3030). The first class is Tuesday, August 20th, 2019, the semester lasts 16 weeks, and the last day of instruction is December 3rd. The textbook is Deutsch heute (ISBN: 978-1-305-07715-7) and please feel free to contact Ross at ross.halvorsen@gmail.com with any questions.

VUJC needs a minimum of 10 enrolled to offer any language course and please help get the word out. Let's show community interest in the German language!

Fall 2019 German Level 1 Class (GRMN 101-J01) CRN #13936, is scheduled on Tuesdays from 6:00 pm - 8:45 pm in the JCCB Building, Room 211.

NOTE: This class is available for the public. You do not need to be a member of the Jasper Deutscher Verein to attend!!!!!!

A message from our Treasurer.....

Thanks to all members who have paid 2019 Dues. Your membership in the Jasper Deutscher Verein is a great way to work collectively with like-minded individuals to preserve, promote and celebrate our German Heritage. Do you have a friend or next generation family member that you might invite to join our club to help us remain strong and vibrant? Bring them along as a guest to our next meeting.

With Strassenfest 2019 only 4 months away, booth chairs Mike & Bridgette Bartley, and Mike & Ann Ackerman are preparing for another successful event. Worker sign ups started at our March meeting.

A German understands the satisfaction and fun of working together. Inviting younger members of our families to work together in our Strassenfest booth is a great way to demonstrate and instill this value. It may also lead them to inquire about involvement in our club.

With our club being tasked by the Strassenfest committee to spear head our German heritage events to help keep our heritage alive and growing, it is important to keep the fire burning strong in our families. Be sure to ask your children and grandchildren if they would like to help. From booth setup and tear down, to working the booth, to involvement with our committee that is organizing events for opening ceremonies, to assisting with the log sawing contest, to simply sporting German clothing at the Strassenfest, there are lots of ways for everyone to get involved.

Mike Ackerman
2019 Treasurer

What is the Easter Fire in Germany? A Symbol of Light in Darkness....

What is the Easter Fire in Germany, and why is it lit? The Easter Fire, or Osterfeuer, is a symbol of light in the darkness. It can be as simple as lighting a candle, or as big as the bonfires which are ignited all over in Germany at Easter. Because fire is a symbol of light, of renewal, it signifies the end of Winter, and the coming of spring. It also symbolizes Jesus Christ, as the Light of the world. Depending on the community, the Easter fire is lit on Good Friday or Black (Holy) Saturday, with Saturday being more common, and extinguished on Easter Sunday or Monday.

What is the Origin of the Easter Fire in Germany?

And how did the Easter Fire start?

For hundreds of years, the Easter Fire has been a tradition in Germany. In Christian tradition, the Easter fire starts with the lighting of a Paschal candle, usually by a Priest or Pastor, to symbolize the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The candle is generally lit on Holy (Black) Saturday to start the Easter Vigil. Parishioners can then light their own candles from this candle. The large Paschal candle is kept lit through the Easter Season. In some churches it stays lit until Ascension Day, or is used throughout the year for Baptisms.

But there is a much older meaning behind the Easter fires that comes from the pre-Christian Saxon tradition. Bonfires at this time of year help the Earth to usher in Spring, and banish the cold and dark of Winter. The fires were also considered a symbol of fertility, and rebirth. The ashes from the Easter fires were spread on the fields to fertilize the soil, and insure good crops for the coming year.

What is the Easter Fire in Germany Today?

Today, Easter bonfires in Germany have lost most of the religious meaning, and they tend to be social event. Friends and family come together with neighbors around a fire, and it's more like a huge party with food and drink. Depending on where you are in Germany, you can either light your own bonfire, while in other areas, bonfires are built and monitored by the local fire department.

More recently, the Osterfeuer, Easter Fires, have evolved into small Volkfests. Booths are set up near the fire to sell food and drink, and some communities even have rides for the kids!

Fires are generally left lit until dawn on Easter Morning, although, in some places they continue burning until Easter Monday, which is a National Holiday in Germany.

Wine from Pfaffenweiler Has Arrived in Jasper

In August of 2015, a discussion began between Sister Cities of Jasper, the Jasper Partnership Commission, and the community of Pfaffenweiler concerning the project of bringing Pfaffenweiler wine to Jasper.

The project came to be reality on March 19, 2019.

Former Mayor Terry Seitz spoke a few words about this project, which started during the anniversary visit by Pfaffenweiler in August of 2015. Mayor Dean Vonderheide spoke about the neat project and how we now have also an economic link with Pfaffenweiler and not just school and cultural. Alan Hanselman talked about the struggles to get to this point. Credit for the project getting done and the 'pipeline' going goes to Stan Jochum and Alan Hanselman, who have explored together with various importers how this can work, who can handle it etc. Matthias Hilger translated the information and visited venues in Germany to check on the project.

Carrol Wine and Spirits out of Fishers, IN was the final link who made it happen with their partner in Germany, Valkenburg. The Weinhaus of Pfaffenweiler, under the leadership of Heinrich Maennle, had made that link and after over two years of investigations, it all came together and the first three pallets of wine was delivered on Tuesday, 3/19/19 at 10:30am.

After the official first unloading, some wine tasting took place, and then the orders were delivered to the various businesses throughout town.

Erinnerst Du Dich?

In the coming newsletters, we will have an opportunity to review memories of the Deutscher Verein and Sister Cities of Jasper, Inc taken from Board Meeting Minutes, Club Meeting Minutes, our website, or articles from printed in The Herald.

February 21, 1980 DeutscherVerein German Club Meeting Minutes

The first official meeting of the newly formed German Club was called to order by the President, Dan Wehr. The group met at the Schnitzelbank with a large crowd on hand.

Larry Hanselman announced the German menu for the evening and those present could partake of the refreshments as they chose to do so.

The President then proceeded with a brief history of the club as there were many members present who were not at the original organizational meeting. The club was the brainchild of the Jasper Action Team which is part of the Chamber of Commerce. This group felt that a club such as this could promote Jasper by enlightening the community of their German heritage, creating more interest in the German architecture for our places of business and supporting the Strassenfest committee. These items would be the basis for the programs which would be presented at the monthly meetings. However, it was stressed that the club would remain mainly a social club.

Dan Wehr announced that the “Fastnacht” was a great success and would become a traditional event. He stated that there were approximately 70 people at the founding meeting and the committee was overwhelmed with the attendance of 400 at the “Fastnacht”.

Wehr then announced the officers and Directors as follows:

President – Dan Wehr, Vice President – Gary Egler, Secretary – Jeanne Holler, Treasurer – Ron Kieffner. Directors – Larry Hanselman, Harvey Berger, and Dave Buehler.

The officers and directors plan to draw up a set of By-Laws in the near future and make necessary arrangements to get the club operating in a business-like manner, incorporating if necessary.

The President praised the club members on their interest which has been evidenced by the immediate organization of the German Band which now played for two functions: a Mannerchor is being formed and will be directed by Ken Ziegler. He thanked all those who worked to make the first “Fastnacht” a success with a special thanks to the Holiday Inn, The Schnitzelbank Band and our own German Band.

Ron Kieffner, Treasurer, then gave the following report:

401 tickets were sold for Fastnacht for a total of	$3,006.50
Profit on Liquor Sales	1,275.00
	$4,281.50
Expenses (Miller Band from Indy)	488.00
Holiday Inn	1,769.50
	$2,024.00
Contribution to Strassenfest Committee	1,400.00
Balance on Hand in Social Account	$ 624.00
Membership Dues Received (290)	$ 696.00
Expenses: Postage, secretarial supplies, etc.	36.00
Balance on hand in Membership account	$ 660.00

The membership approved the 3rd Thursday of each month as meeting night. The next meeting will be March 20 with the location to be announced at a later date. Membership will be notified by mail.

The membership voiced their ideas of future programs which included polka and folk dance lessons, slide shows on Germany, etc. Wehr announced that we could secure a representative of Lufthansa Air Lines who would be able to present a program at some future date.

Jeanne Holler announced that Cecile Klamer would be pleased to present a program on the history of the Gramelspacher-Gutzweiler Home at the March 20th meeting.

Dan Wehr announced to the club that plans should be made outlining specific social functions such as "Fastnacht", a May Day Party, Oktoberfest, and possibly a Kris Kringle Party. Assistance would also be given at the time of Strassenfest.

It was suggested that we consider chartering busses to visit other German Club functions such as a trip to Terre Haute, Louisville, Evansville, etc.

Following the business meeting, the remainder of the evening was turned over to the German Band which presented an enjoyable program.

Larry Hanselman then served a most delicious German lunch which turned out to be the real highlight of the evening. Our sincere thanks to the Schnizelbank!

Respectfully submitted,

Jeanne Holler, Secretary

Das Kaffeekränzchen

Dr. Ross Halvorsen will host Das Kaffeekränzchen (coffee hour) at the High School from 3-4 PM every week on Wednesdays when school is in session. It will be a German conversation group that will be open to students and members of the community to learn and practice their spoken German.

This would be a good event to attend to brush up or improve your knowledge of the German language in preparation for any upcoming trips to Germany or welcoming visitors from Germany to your home!!!!
