

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

January 9, 1985

The Board of Directors of the Deutscherverein met Tuesday evening with the following members present: Ron Kieffner, Al Astrike, Rita Corn, Nancy Burton, Dennis Fritz, Jan Hulsman, Claude Eckert, and Rev. George Muenich.

New officers and directors for 1985 were discussed and the following slate proposed for election at the January 31 meeting:

President:	Lowell Glendening	Board of Directors:
Vice President:	Dennis Fritz	Claude Eckert
Secretary:	Pat Hochgesang	Rev. George Muenich
Treasurer:	Nancy Burton	Rita M. Corn
		Ex-Officio: Ron Kieffner

In order to relieve the president of so many duties, it was suggested he appoint a newsletter editor to handle the typing, copying and mailing of the newsletter. It was also suggested the Vice-President and Board of Directors contribute to the meetings by each person being responsible for the details of one meeting.

Ron Kieffner appointed Harold Burton and Jim Corn to work on the placement of a May Pole on the square. A total of $1000 was set aside for this purpose.

A decision was also made to set aside $1000 for completion of work on the trailer and $1000 to build a permanent dance floor 24x24x3 in the Strassenfest Beer Garder.

The agreement for the past two years with the Strassenfest Committee in regard to the food stand was a refund of the 5% gross to the club if it was used in a community project.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Our Club will begin it's 6th year and new members are still being added every month. The main purpose of our Club is to learn something about our German Heritage and have a little or lot of fun in getting together socially. In doing this, I tried to have something special for all age groups.
